

'FANTABULOSO!' BY VILLAIN

28 March - 20 April 2019

'Fantabuloso!' - an exhibition by the artist Villain that views pop art and superhero iconography through a queer lens - comes to specialist print gallery ATOM (Hackney, London) from 29 March - 20 April 2019.

Villain's stunning graphic and print work celebrates Polari, (the lost gay language) whilst playfully subverting Pop Art and the comic book genre, and asks us to imagine a past where homosexuality was never criminalised.

This exhibition will feature a previously unseen series of archival giclée prints, along with several limited edition screenprints, all of which will be available to buy.

Villain has worked as an Art and Graphics director in the Fashion Industry for over 20 years. He's now bringing his mischievous perspective to the art world via Atom.

Atom Gallery is a contemporary art gallery in Stoke Newington, London, hosting regular exhibitions showcasing the work of new and emerging artists and printmakers.

For more information, interviews and images please contact:
Richard Pendry - 07999 255950 - rich@atomgallery.co.uk

---